ELEVEN TIMES WORLD CHAMPIONS

The Green Bay Packers lead the NFL in most Championships won with eleven. Green Bay won three by League standing (1929, 1930 and 1931) and eight times (1936, 1939, 1944, 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966 and 1967) since the play-off system was established in 1933.

In addition, the Packers hold two AFL-NFL Professional Football Titles by virtue of their 35-10 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in 1967 and their 33-14 victory over the Oakland Raiders in 1968.

The Chicago Bears are next with eight NFL Championships, having won twice prior to the play-off system (1921 and 1932) and six times since (1937, 1940, 1941, 1943, 1946 and 1963).

The Giants, Lions and Browns have won 4 titles, the Eagles and Colts 3, the Redskins twice, and Cleveland Rams, Chicago Cards, and Los Angeles Rams once apiece.

The Giants have appeared in 13 playoffs and have lost 10. The Bears and Redskins have lost 4 times and the Browns 5 times.

Green Bay's only two losses were in 1938 (Giants 23, Packers 17) in New York; and in 1960 in Philadelphia (17-13 margin to the Eagles).

BIRTH OF A TEAM AND A LEGEND

On the evening of August 11, 1919, a score or more of husky young characters, called together by Curly Lambeau and George Calhoun, gathered in the dingy editorial room of the old Press-Gazette building on Cherry Street and organized a football team. They didn't know it, but that was the beginning of the incredible saga of the Green Bay Packers.

There had been some preliminary talk and planning and that night's decision wasn't announced until two days later, but the big step had been taken. So August 11 is as good a birthday as any.

Actually, the initial spark had been struck a few weeks before during a casual street corner conversation between Curley Lambeau and George Calhoun. It was apparently one of those "why not get up a football team?" remarks, but once they got interested they wasted no time.

First they talked Curley's employers at the Indian Packing Company into putting up some money for equipment.

Because the team's jerseys had been provided by the packing company, which also permitted the use of its athletic field for practice, the club was identified in its early publicity as a project of the company. With this tie-in the name "Packers" was a natural, and Packers they have been ever since, although the corporation had practically faded out of the picture before that first season was half over.

EARLY DAYS — That first season the team won 10 games and lost only one against other teams from Wisconsin and Upper Michigan. Games were played in an open field with no fence, or bleachers, and interested fans "passed the hat." But the team was so successful by 1921 that Lambeau was backed by two officials of the packing plant in obtaining a franchise in the new national pro-football league that had been formed in 1920. Cash customers didn't quite pay the freight, and at the end of the season it had to be forfeited. This was the first in a long series of troubles that the now famous team overcame, for in 1922 Lambeau gained other backers and bought the franchise back for $250. Troubles continued during that season. One game was rained out and the insurance company wouldn't pay off because the official amount of rain was one one-hundredth of an inch short of that required in the policy. Another storm late in the season when the Packers were scheduled to play the Duluth Eskimos, however, proved the founding of the modern community corporation. A. B. Turnbull, general manager of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, told the Packers to play anyway. He then went out and helped organize the businessmen of Green Bay in the support of the team, and the Green Bay Football Corporation was formed.

THE IRON MAN ERA — With good financial backing, Lambeau began to pick up college stars from all over the country, plus some unknowns who were going to turn out to be "greats." And in 1929 Green Bay won the national professional football championship. They repeated in 1930 and 1931 with a team featuring such all-time pro greats as Red Dunn, Verne Lewellen, Cal Hubbard, Bo Molenda, Jug Earp, Mike Michalske, Johnny Blood, Bill Kern, Arnie Herber, Lavvie Dilweg, Tom Nash, Milt Gantenbein and Hank Bruder. Many games 12 to 13 players would go for almost the full 60 minutes. These teams were hailed all over the country as some of the greatest ever.

THE HUTSON PERIOD — Trouble flared again soon afterward. A fan fell from the stands, sued and won a $5,000 verdict, and the insurance company went out of business. The Packers went into receivership, were just about to fold when Green Bay businessmen came to the rescue again, raised $15,000 in new capital and reorganized the club. About this time a rather slight, lanky end by the name of Don Hutson came to the club. From his first game on, Hutson became the terror of the league and the secret of Green Bay's next three championships. On his first play in professional ball against the Chicago Bears, he took a pass from Arnie Herber and went 94 yards for the only score of the game. With Herber and Cecil Isbell pitching and Hutson catching anything they threw at him despite any kind of a stop-Hutson defense, Green Bay won championships in 1936, 1939 and 1944, and all during the Hutson era they always finished in the first division.

RONZANI REGIME — After Hutson's retirement, Packer fortunes again went into a decline. The disastrous pro football war brought on another financial crisis after the 1949 season. In the midst of it Lambeau resigned to take a position as head coach of the Chicago Cardinals. Then began another major reorganization and rebuilding effort with Gene Ronzani of the Bears hired as head coach. Over $125,000 was raised in a giant stock sale all over the state. Ronzani's teams improved each of the first three seasons until 1952. The Packers were in the thick of the title chase until the last weeks of the season. In 1953 the team played erratic ball and Ronzani resigned with two games remaining on the schedule.

BLACKBOURN TAKES OVER — The Packers overhauled their front office and coaching staff in 1954, hiring Verne C. Lewellen, all-time Packer great, attorney and business man, as general manager. Reaching into college ranks for a head coach was the next step in the re-building plans and Lisle W. Blackbourn, a native Wisconsinite, and Coach of Marquette University, was signed to a contract. During the four year Blackbourn regime the Packers won 17 while losing 31.

McLEAN MOVES UP — Likeable Ray "Scooter" McLean moves up from an outstanding assistant coach to guide the destiny of the Packers for 1958. McLean resigned in December after a 1-10-1 record, worst in Packer history in his first season as head coach.

FROM SANDLOT TO STADIUM — Procedures at Packers games have come a long way since the sandlot years of 1919-20 when the Pack was subsisting on the contents of George Calhoun's hat. Then there were no ushers, no majorettes, no band and no public address system — the latter hadn't been invented yet. There weren't even any seats at first, and it didn't cost anything to get in.

When the Packers began their career in 1919 they played on approximately the same site as now abandoned City Stadium, but with a mighty difference. Hagemeister Park, as it was called, was just a big vacant lot with a football gridiron marked on it.

There were no gates because there wasn't any fence. Spectators just dropped off the Walnut street street-car and walked over to the sideline, or drove their own cars and parked about ten yards behind the ropes stretched around the playing field.

If they felt like it they either sat in their automobiles or on top of them, but most preferred to get out and follow the play up and down the field. By moving as the play progressed you always had a "50-yard line" location and were handy to any donnybrook that might require a little help. In fact, when things got exciting the crowd sometimes spilled right onto the field, surrounded the scrimmage in a big circle and virtually took part in every play. Teams didn't huddle in those days, or the fans would have been in that too.

When the half ended teams grabbed blankets and adjourned to opposite end zones where they relaxed and talked over the tactics for the next half. Nothing private about those huddles. The crowd formed a ring around the players, a practice encouraged since it made a handy wind break. Fans weren't bashful about joining the discussions either, sometimes with surprising results. At least one early game was pulled out of the fire by a spectators' halftime suggestion.

In 1920 a section of stands was built — just a small bleacher with a capacity of a couple hundred — on one side of the field, and a fee charged to sit there. The next year a portable canvas fence was erected around the whole field and a regular admission charge inaugurated.

When Hagemeister Park was dug up in 1923 to make way for East High School, the Packers shifted to the new baseball grounds out on the end of Main Street. This was called Bellevue Park because it was just east of the old Hagemeister Brewery, which was renamed the Bellevue Products Co. during Prohibition. Things were Big Time out there, with crowds of 4,000 to 5,000 storming the fences to boo the hated Chicago Bears.

The Packers used Bellevue in 1923-24, but it was obviously inadequate and too far out, lacking about every facility needed for football. Agitation to build a new stadium somewhere near the original site culminated in the erection of old City Stadium just back of the new high school.

The new plant was barely completed in time for the 1925 opening, but was an immediate success, the Bear game that year drawing a record crowd of nearly 6,000. It was a typical small town park of its day, with wooden fences and stands on both sides between the 30-yard lines. A wooden railing surrounded the rest of the gridiron, along which the Knothole Gang stood or sat on the ground.

Seating capacity was gradually increased until it seated 15,000 by 1934, with the end zones still uncovered. With the filling in of the area around the end lines the ultimate capacity of 25,000 was reached.

One of the first tasks of the stadium builders was the creation of a good playing field, a job admirably done. Whatever antiquated City Stadium may have lacked, one of the best turfs in the country wasn't one of them.

After World War II City Stadium gradually faded from its once proud position as one of the favored fields in the National Football League to an inadequate and obsolete installation. As pro crowds increased it was impossible to expand the stadium any further. With limited capacity, the Packers found it increasingly difficult to schedule top opponents at home.

September 29, 1957 was a proud day for Green Bay and its Packers. A million dollar modern stadium with a seating capacity of 32,150 was dedicated. In 1961 the Stadium was expanded to 38,669, to 42,327 in 1963 and to its present 50,861 in 1965 when the name was changed to Lambeau Field.

There has never been an empty seat for a League game in Green Bay since 1959 when Vince Lombardi revived Packer football.

THE LOMBARDI ERA

In 1959, the Packers announced the signing of New York Giant assistant Vince Lombardi as Head Coach and General Manager of a team that finished dead last in 1958 with a 1-10-1 mark.

In his first season, Lombardi lifted the Packers to a 7-5 record and was unanimously voted Coach of the Year.

Then in 1960, the Packers captured the Western Division Title and went on to win World Championships in 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966 and 1967. Never finishing lower than second since 1960, his teams have become the standard of football excellence and the Packer franchise has become one of the most successful in the National Football League.

In 1967, Green Bay played to 22 consecutive sellouts in 23 games and became the first team in the history of the League to win three straight World Titles.

Over a nine year span as Head Coach, Lombardi's teams racked up 141 victories against 39 losses and 4 ties for a remarkable .783 winning percentage. Even more noteworthy, however, is the record of Lombardi coached teams in post-season play. In 10 Division playoffs and World Championship Games, the Packers emerged victorious nine times.

Following the third consecutive Title in 1967, Lombardi turned over the Head Coaching duties to Phil Bengtson and one year later announced that he was leaving Green Bay to coach and manage the Washington Redskins.

DAVE HANNER
ASSISTANT COACH —
DEFENSIVE LINE

After playing for the Green Bay Packers for 13 seasons, Dave Hanner switched to the coaching ranks in 1965 working with the Packers' Front Four.

As a player, Dave was named All-Pro five times and was twice selected to play on the West Pro Bowl Team.

A native of Parkin, Arkansas, Hanner played his collegiate football at the University of Arkansas where he was twice named to the All-Southwest Conference Team.

The Green Bay Packers drafted Hanner in the fifth round in 1952 and he played on the Western Divisional Title Team of 1960 as well as the World Champion Teams of 1961 and 1962. Between seasons as an active player, Dave worked as a soil conservationist in West Memphis, Arkansas, before moving to Green Bay in 1964.

WAYNE ROBINSON
DEFENSIVE SECONDARY

The man in charge of the Packers' multi-talented secondary is Wayne Robinson.

Robinson was born January 14, 1930 in Minneapolis, Minn., and attended North High before enrolling at the University of Minnesota. Collegiately, Robinson played center and linebacker for three years and was the captain of the 1951 Gopher team.

Following his senior year, he was named to the All-Western Conference and All-Midwest Teams and was selected as captain of the East Shrine Team.

Drafted by Philadelphia, Robinson played both center and linebacker for five seasons (1952-56) with the Eagles before becoming an assistant coach with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers under Bud Grant, now of the Minnesota Vikings. Wayne was named All-Pro with the Eagles in 1955 and 1956 and recently was selected on the All Time Eagle team.

In 1959, Robinson was named Head Coach of the British Columbia Lions, also of the Canadian League, where he served for two years.

After spending 1961-1963 away from football, Robinson returned to the coaching ranks under Jerry Burns at Iowa from 1964 until 1966 when he joined the Houston Oilers of the AFL.

BOB SCHNELKER
ASSISTANT COACH —
PASSING GAME

The Green Bay Packers' air attack is coached by Bob Schnelker, a nine year veteran as a player in the National Football League.

Bob played his collegiate football at Bowling Green University and was a 17th round draft choice of the Cleveland Browns in 1953.

He played with the New York Giants at tight end from 1954 to 1962 and finished his career in 1962 with Pittsburgh and Minnesota.

In 1963 he coached the Ram receivers and in February of 1966 joined Vince Lombardi under whom he had played at New York from 1954 to 1958.

As a player, Bob was a two time performer in the Pro Bowl, enjoying his finest season in 1959 when New York won the first of two consecutive Eastern Conference Crowns and five in a period of six years.

RAY WIETCHA
ASSISTANT COACH —
RUNNING GAME

Ten year New York Giant veteran Ray Wietcha is in charge of the Packers' offensive line.

As an active player with the Giants, Ray played in 133 consecutive games and was rated one of the best blockers in the NFL. He was named to the All-Pro Team five times and played on 4 Eastern Conference Pro Bowl Teams. In 1963 he joined the Los Angeles Rams as offensive line coach, where he served for two years before coming to Green Bay.

Collegiately, Ray was an All-Big Ten center at Northwestern University where he was an 11th round future draft choice of the New York Giants in 1953. After graduation he had a brief baseball tryout before returning to football.

The 1969 Green Bay Packers Press Book is published by Tom Johnson Promotion Services of Milwaukee for distribution by Wisconsin and Upper Michigan Ford Dealers.

PAT PEPPLER

PLAYER PERSONNEL

A large portion of credit for the discovery and development of Packer youth goes to Personnel Director Pat Peppler, who is in charge of all scouting and player selection in the college draft.

Every year, Peppler sifts through the prospective pro prospects from the collegiate and minor football leagues and evaluates candidates for try-outs with the Packers.

A three sport star at Shorewood (Wisc) high school, Peppler attended Michigan State University where he lettered in baseball and basketball. After graduating in 1948, Peppler played pro baseball briefly before beginning a successful career coaching in the East Lansing area. He coached state championship teams in football before taking a position as assistant coach at North Carolina for 8 years, working with centers and linebackers. In 1962 he switched to Wake Forest and in 1963 came to Green Bay, replacing Dick Voris as Director of Player Personnel.

Better ideas in trucks?

Your Ford Dealer leads right down the line!

See your Ford Dealer—the man with the most to show!

Hot New Ranchero GT comes with unique laser stripes. This pulse-pounding pickup for people who leave the pack behind is one of four all new Ranchero models. They're richer and racier than ever before with more luxury and performance options.

Van with 23% more loadspace with the engine moved forward Econoline gives you 8½' clear load length in standard models, over 10 ft. in the Super-Van. Outside service center, payloads up to 3595 lbs. and driver's walk-through also exclusive.

Pickup with two front axles works like a truck, rides like a car. Ford's exclusive design employs twin I-beam axles for strength, coil springs for easy ride. Flex-O-Matic rear springs ride right, loaded or light. Ford's cab is roomiest yet.
